Stockholm, July 3, O. S.

THE King has consented to give the Title of Royal Highness to the Duke of Holstein. Last Friday there was a great Dispute in the Assembly of the Nobility concerning the Estates in Land of which the Nobility was deprived in Charles the 11th's Time. It was resolved that an exact Research should be made into all the Estates and Demesnes of the Crown, and by what Titles it now possesses the same. It appearing to the Secret Committee by the Protocols of the Senate, that the Senators have frequently absented themselves under Pretence of the Infirmities of Age, of Affairs requiring their Attendance at the several Colleges, &c. it is said that Committee is determined to represent this Absence of the Senators to the States as a Matter of great Abuse, and very detrimental to the publick Good. Orders are given to the several Committees, to assemble more frequently, that Affairs may be brought to a Conclusion as soon as possible.

Hanover, July 23, N. S. Yesterday the King returned to Heerenhausen from Pyrmont in perfect Health: His Majesty drank the Waters of that Place the usual Time of 14 Days. The Lord Viscount Townshend and the Lord Carteret attended His Majesty on His Return. His Majesty has received an Express from Berlin, with Advice that the Queen of Prussia intends to be this Evening at Heerenhausen. M. le Coq, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, having some Days ago received a Courier from his Master, immediately set out from this Place for Dresden. The Marquess of Pozzobueno, the Spanish Ambassadour, arrived here from London while the King was at Pyrmont, and went to see Hambourg; he is expected back within a few Days.

Whitehall, July 16, 1723.

Whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for the more effectual punishing wicked and evil disposed Persons going armed in Disguise, and doing Injuries and Violences to the Persons and Properties of His Majesty's Subjects, and for the more speedy bringing the Offenders to Justice, It is among other things enacted, That all Persons who since the 2d of February last have been guilty of any of the Offences in the said Act mentioned, and shall not surrender themselves before the 24th Day of July Instant, to one of the Judges of the King's Bench, or to a Justice of the Peace for the County where the Offence was committed, and make a full Confession thereof, and a Discovery upon Oath of their Accomplices, shall be guilty of Felony without Benefit of the Clergy, provided that such as do so surrender themselves on or before the said 24th Day of July, and make such Confession and Discovery, shall by Virtue of the said Act be pardoned: It has been thought proper to give this publick Notice thereof, that Persons under such unhappy Circumstances may be warned of their Condition if they neglect to comply with the said Act.

The Trustees appointed by a late Act of Parliament for the stopping of Dagenham Breach, do hereby give Notice, That they intend to meet at the Guildhall, London, on Tuesday the 30th Instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, to receive Proposals for the immediate Removal of the Shelf or Sand-Bank off Dagenham Jetty in the River of Thames, from Forty Yards Distance from the Shore at Low-Water-Mark, against the lowermost Part of Captain John Perry's lower Sluice directly cross the said River, so that there shall be full Six Foot Water at Low Water upon a Neap Tide.
